Catherine Gross is a teacher and player. She teaches classes that focus on play oriented BDSM skills, Dominance and Submission, improving your sex life, gender, house management, activism and theory.

She has been active in various communities for a number of years. She has served on several local and national boards, judged contests, staffed conferences, emceed and produced fundraisers for various charities/organizations. In 2002, she was awarded the Black Rose Vaughn Keith Educational Award as an outstanding educator in our national community.

Lady Catherine has presented classes at conferences such as LIL, Leatherfest, Leather University, Boys Camp, International Ms. Leather, Pantheon and many more. She also enjoys the one on one contact that smaller organizations facilitate. She's presented hundreds of classes over the years. Lady Catherine has also written a Safety Manual in use by seven organizations scattered from coast to coast.

She is an owner of a wholesale chainmail business and of Fetish Auctioneer, the alternative auction site that is currently the most successful alternative auction site on the web. She also teaches private classes for couples, groups and individuals that can be found soon on www.BDSMClasses.com.

"Teaching provides me with great joy. I love seeing emotional and intellectual connections made in class discussions. We've all contributed to educating each other in many forms. It is my great fortune to participate in the creation of these moments."
